

Palmer.
HAS FOR SALE
A BUSHE'S BACKED
SPUNNED CLOTH

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The copartnership of Bartow & Cravens has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, John L. Bartow retiring, and the new firm, known as THE EXAMINER PUBLISHING COMPANY, hereby assume all the liabilities of Bartow & Cravens, and will collect all outstanding indebtedness due said Bartow & Cravens.

Witness our hands this 24th day of November, 1888.

JOHN L. BARTOW.

FRANK P. CRAVENS.

EXAMINER PUBLISHING CO.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

In all directions business prospects are improving, although the situation nowhere justifies such speculative wildness as has appeared in some branches. Money still goes to the west, and even more to the south, and bankers anticipate some pressure as the new year approaches, but the treasury has increased its deposits with banks $1,72,182 during the past week, and so has with drawn from market only $900,000 cash. Plans of tariff reduction attract attention, but do not seem to have yet elicited the demand for products. Exchanges running nearly 8 percent above those of corresponding weeks last year, and railroad earnings showing an increase exceeding 10 per cent, with shipments from Chicago, by rail, 5,000 tons larger than for the same week last year, indicate a volume of traffic never surpassed at this season, though reaction from the greater activity of September causes, in some branches, complaint of dullness.

The most important fact is, that investment of foreign capital in this country still continues. The latest evidence, a sale of $1,000,000 Northern Pacific bonds to a foreign syndicate, came at a time when foreign sales of stocks appeared to foreshadow a contrary movement. In October, merchandise exports amounted to $76,000,000, the largest October report for five years, and exceeded imports by $15,000,000; deducting undervaluations, interest, and other items, the balance of merchandise would be not more than $5,000,000, leaving most of the net imports of specie, which were $11,65,754, to represent new foreign capital brought hither. In seven months not less than $10,000,000 must have thus arrived from abroad, which has gone far to support the continued development of railroads, mines and manufactures, and the speculation in real estate.

Nevertheless the effects of partial loss of crop begin to be felt. From most quarters come complaints that collections are slow or erratic, and though rapid marketing of products has brought relief at most southern and some western points, as many others money is close and rates high. At Boston the danger of a large mercantile reverse has been averted, and a better time prevails; at Philadelphia business reaction from past unusual activity is felt, and money is in good supply; at western centers the country demand still continues, and the markets are generally close.

Large railroad earnings are met in many ways by unthought increase in expenses; thus the Pennsylvania shows a decrease in net earnings of $139,750 for October, and the New York Central increased gross earnings $832,925 for the last quarter, but expenses increased $1,185,000, so that net earnings fell off $32,000. Stocks closed Wednesday about 50 cents per share higher than last week, but showed hesitation at the close, and declined yesterday afternoon. Traction, Breadstuffs have advanced, wheat 1 cent, oats 5-8 cent, and corn rose sharply yesterday, partly has advanced 25 cents per barrel, and flour 10 cents per bushel, though bags are lower. The iron market is still weak at Pittsburg, but a shade firmer for No. 2 at Philadelphia because of the scarcity of the best grades. A decline in British exports to this country from £50,000 to £60,000 in September, to £2,000 in October, encourages the trade.

Cotton goods are very firm, and some make advances again. The woolens trade is quiet, with few new orders. A break in provisions on Wednesday was followed by recovery the same day. Coal is scarce and higher, the strike being called the cause, although the actual output last week was larger in spite of the strike than that of the same week last year. Over-production was given as the reason for curtailment or stoppage by some sugar refineries, but the price quickly improved, and current statistics sustain estimates that the world's consumption this year will closely approximate the supply. Bureau estimates of the cotton crop are still disputed, but the market has grown stronger in the belief that Southwestern forest fires will delay shipment.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to B. G. Dunn & Co., the merchantile agency, by telegraph, number for the United States, 187, and for Canada 20, or a total of 207, as compared with 221 last week, and 217 the week previous to the last. The figures for the corresponding week of 1883 were 216, made up of 189 failures in the United States, and 27 in Canada.

Bucklin's Arsenic Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chill blains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Castles, Morrison & Co.

No More Tacks in Shoes.

The old shoe, band burst, is doomed. The tacks that the master so carefully drove shall be known no more. The new fastenings are tacks, but smoothly and firmly joins sole and upper with a cement that never yields, and the shoe, when sewed, is turned out not only a thing of beauty, but of lasting comfort to the wearer.

Another improvement in shoe manufacture is the cutting of the uppers as a single piece of leather, doing away with the old-style seam at each side, and making the seamless shoe much neater in appearance and more comfortable to the foot.

These two improvements have been adopted at heavy expense by Mr. W. L. Douglas, of Brockton, Mass., for his celebrated $3-shoes, and cannot be found in any other $3 advertised shoe. The W. L. Douglas $3 shoe long ago outrivaled all competitors, and is now more surely than ever "the best $3 shoe in the world."

No more tacks in your shoes reader, if you buy the W. L. Douglas $3 shoe.

A Rare Opening for Business.

We have determined to enter the wholesale business exclusively, and therefore we wish to dispose of our retail stock of books, stationery and fancy goods in our present retail store on Austin street, and do so from Fourth. We have a splendid assortment of new goods, and will dispose of them at a great bargain. We will sell the stock and fixtures, with good-will etc., on easy terms—say one-third cash, balance 10 one and two years, with interest—or we will trade the whole for good city or country property. Our solicitor less will show a handsome profit, and our only reason for selling is that we may give our whole time and capital to the wholesale business. We have an old-established business and one of the best stands in the city. Possession will be given January 1 or 15, 1888. Call at once, for we mean business. W. S. BLACKSTAFF & Co., Waco, Nov. 26, 1887.

New citron and seedless raisins at C. C. McCulloch's.

Farmer's thanksgiving dinner meet at C. C. McCulloch's.

New fruit butter and preserves at C. C. McCulloch's.

New raisins, pitted cherries and currants at C. C. McCulloch's.

Mocking bird food and bird gravel at C. C. McCulloch's.

Rock candy and maple syrups at C. C. McCulloch's.

Grocery & Barber pens and pocket books at C. C. McCulloch's.

New California canned fruits at C. C. McCulloch's.

Farmer's deep sea mackerel at C. C. McCulloch's.

Holland and cream cheese at C. C. McCulloch's.

Commencing November 1st, we will offer the cheapest military goods to be found in the city. We have a complete stock of all the novelties of the season, and in order to get our stock of winter goods entirely sold out, we will offer our regular prices as most in the beginning of the season.

Mrs. Kate S. Gute, South Fourth st.

We carry a full line of eight sixteen ounce duck tents and a 1999, in all sizes, on which we quote the very lowest prices. Being selling agents for a very large tent manufacturer, we can quote very low prices to dealers. Sanger Brothers.

A complete set of Appleton's Encyclopedia to be sold at a sacrifice, at Hill Bros.

Just opened a new line of hair brushes at prices to suit all.

W. A. Williamson & Co.

Nothing Like It.

There is nothing like putting on style when you can afford it. If you will have your suits made at Gab's Brother's you will get the latest style of cut and fit prices which you can afford. Try it.

Tutt's Pills

Is an invaluable remedy for SICK HEADACHE, TORPID LIVER, DYSPEPSIA, PILS, MALARIA, COSTIVENESS, AND ALL BILIOUS DISEASES.

Sold Everywhere.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

A SPECIFIC FOR Painful Swelling, Irregular Monthly + SICKNESS.

It takes during the CHANGE OF LIFE, great danger will be avoided. Send for book, "MESSAGE TO WOMEN," mailed free.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ALBION, N.Y.

FOR ALL DISORDERS OF THE Stomach, Liver and Bowels

PACIFIC LIVER PILLS

STRICTLY VEGETABLE.

FOR CONSTITUTION, INDURATION, PILES, STICK, SKIN HEADACHE, LIVER, & ALL DISEASES OF APPETITE, HUNGER, & NUTRITION.

PRICE, 25 cents per box.

PACIFIC MANUFACTURING CO., ST. LOUIS, MO.

CURE
Sick Headache!
BY USING THE GENUINE
Dr. C. McLane's
LIVER PILLS
PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Send us the outside wrapper from a box of the genuine Dr. C. McLane's CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, with your address, plainly written, and we will send you by return mail a magnificent package of Chromatic and Geographic Cards.

FLEMING BROS.
PITTSBURGH, PA.

YOU, SIR! NEXT!

Isn't there something very suggestive in this salutation of the barber? There stands Old Father Time, for instance, with his scythe. What of his harvest? Do what we will we can't avoid the inevitable. Life may be saved, prolonged, made happy by physical comfort, by blessed spiritual guidance, by honored by good works, but it has its limit ordained by fate. The Old Reaper may be forgiving, he may be lenient and partial to many notwithstanding all the sweep of the scythe goes on—ranks are mowed down, you are reached at last. He calls "Next," and passes on to ranks of other victims. How near he is we never know. We may know that he is about, that he is, by many signs. Even a minor achievement may be the forerunner of his swift approach, or chronic agony of disease without coming. Neglect of other only weakens his ultimate, irresistible and care ward of attack. What then is the moral?

Simply to preserve health, to provide against sudden derangements of the system from which arise sudden and acute pains, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, are cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy at hand for use, was cured at once and permanently. To put back to the Barber, Mr. Walter F. Cook, publisher of the "Barber," Camanche, N. Y., under date of February 10, 1887, relates the following incident: "Thus, Beckman, a prominent colored barber of this village, suffered several months with rheumatism, which, by keeping the proper remedy